AGENTS WANTED.
 The result of the election will be foreshadowed in the World weeks in advance, exactly as Cleveland's election was foretold, and as McKinley's triumph was, The World giving the electoral vote by States with absolute correctness ten weeks before McKinley's election day.
 The World will not only strive to be right, but it will be bright and large; national in its news and views. Every one who is interested in this vital Presidential contest will need it every day. No Democrat or Republican should be happy without it.
 The regular price for the Daily Morning World by mail is $2.00 for four months, but for a special time the World will send the Daily Morning Edition by mail for four months for $1. Agents are wanted to take subscriptions. A liberal commission will be given. Address World Campaign Club Room 49, Pulitzer Building, N. Y.
 Terms, subscription blanks, sample copies, printed matter, etc., will be sent by return mail.

BRUTALLY TORTURED.
 A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobick, of Colusa, Calif., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Ocean Springs Drug Store.

SPORTING NEWS.
SCRANTON WINS.
 Last Sunday the local baseball team went out to Scranton to again meet their "hobby" which was broken several months ago. It is hoped that this "hobby" will again be broken in the next game played. This is almost certainly as we have one of the fastest amateur (all home talent) clubs on the coast. The game last Sunday at Pascagoula was a very fast one in which our boys were defeated by a close score. Had Scranton all home boys the score would have been another way. The next game (next Sunday) will be with a coast club in our new park. The Phoenician would have printed the official score, but was unable to obtain it, but it can be looked for in the next game, as we will take pains to have our reporter on the grounds. A full account of the game will also be reported. All "putts" and criticisms on the players, which will result in much encouragement.

NOTICE TO CONFIRM TAX TITLE.
 The State of Mississippi:
 To Ignatius Grantham if living and if dead to his heirs at law, or devisees, and to any and all persons having or claiming any right, title or interest either at law or equity in the hereinafter described parcel of land in Jackson County, Mississippi, sold for taxes March 1st, 1897, to-wit:

CONTEST NOTICE.
 Jackson, Miss., July 13, 1904.
 A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Eugene Pearson, of Daisy, Mississippi, contestant, against Jackson series homestead entry No. 35387, made May 19, 1900, for NE 1/4 Sec. 5 and NW 1/4 Sec. 4, Township 4 S., Range 8 W., by William Kendrick or William Kendrick Contestee, in which it is alleged that he is well acquainted with the tract of land embraced in the said entry and knows the present condition of the same; also that said William Kendrick has never lived upon and cultivated said homestead entry according to law, but has wholly abandoned the same for more than six months prior to the initiation of this contest; and that said alleged absence from the said land was not due to his employment in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States as a private soldier, officer, seaman or marine, during the war with Spain, or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged, said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on Sept. 6, 1904 before F. H. Lewis, Chancery Clerk, in and for Jackson County, at his office in Jackson, Mississippi (and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on September 14, 1904, before) the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Jackson, Mississippi.
 The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed July 12, 1904, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice has been made, it is hereby ordered and decreed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
FRANK W. COLLINS, Register.

DEATHS.
DEATH OF MRS. COYLE.
 The sad death of Mrs. Magdalena Coyle occurred last Thursday evening, though expected was quite shocking to the entire community as she was held in the highest esteem by all. At the time of her death she was in her nineties, and, as will be seen, old age claimed her death.
 Mrs. Coyle was the widow of the late Francis Coyle, and was a resident of this city for the past fifty years.
 The funeral occurred Friday afternoon from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. M. J. Brady, across the bayou at 3 o'clock, services were conducted by Rev. Father deGrutter, at the Catholic church of which she has been a devoted member during life.
 She leaves one daughter and a number of grand children to mourn her demise. To them The Phoenician, with the citizens of this community, joins in offering their heartfelt sympathy.

THE NEWS OF THE DEATH OF SISTER ELIZABETH, a Sister of New Orleans, visiting at the convent, was received with a shock by the citizens of this city Thursday morning. The Sister was in the best of health the day before her death. The cause of her death is supposed to be due to heart failure. The funeral occurred Thursday morning, conducted by Rev. Father deGrutter.
